

QR-SPD07-10

Surge Protection Device

It is a low-cost single-phase surge protection device designed for outdoor lighting, with the protection function of L to N ,L to Ground, N to Ground, and its design conforms to IEEE C62.41 2002C High.

It is required to be used in parallel. With the characteristics of not limited to the load power and the relatively smaller size of the installation requirements than similar products, it is more suitable for the current LED lighting design requirements.

